

Rain table

Ned Kahn

Can you follow the path of the balls with your ears?

Turn the disc slowly.

The balls roll over the disc and as they do, they make various sounds and rhythms. The different lengths of metal pins make high, medium, and deep notes.

Because the balls never take the same route twice, you get a new melody every time.